

GALWAY DOCKLANDS EXPERIENCE

Experience one of Ireland's oldest Fishing
Traditions

Galway Docklands Experience

- ❑ Galway Bay & Docklands Co-Operative represents an affiliation of like-minded businesses and friends who have united in their passion for the centuries-old fishing tradition that exists up until the present day in Galway.
- ❑ This is an opportunity to engage with REAL people, including fishermen and fishmongers to understand their daily lives and their very REAL connection with the Atlantic Ocean that continues to support their livelihoods. Highlights of engaging with this co-op include:

- ▣ Docklands, Bay & people –the tradition, passion, hardship, and joy of daily working lives
- ▣ Oliver family – one of the only surviving fishing families from Galways Claddagh Village
- ▣ Galway Bay Seafoods – from the fishmonger, hear how the business evolved
- ▣ Dockside Deli – dine among locals and tast Irelands supreme-quality fosh and shellfish
- ▣ Claddagh Village – ancient 7th century fishing village in the heart of Galway City
- ▣ Docklands – working port in Galway City on the shore of Galway Bay
